DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The lengthy specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 11 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative form only. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claim has not been further treated on the merits.

Claims 1,4-9,17-21,24, and 30 are objected to because of the following informalities: Any matter within parentheses will not be given any patentable weight. Example: Claim 1, page 98 lines 1-3 "(hereinafter a cell phone or a small PDA device is referred to as "cell phone" up to claim 19)" and lines19-22 "(hereinafter, joy key, a joy stick, an arrow direction key or cogwheel-type or ball rotation –type input means for taking the task is referred to as "joy stick" up to claim 19) and lines 27-28 "(hereinafter a joy stick and keys are referred to as "letter input means" up to claim 19)" Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 30 is objected to because of the following informalities: Line 8 of claim 30 begins with the word "In" the letter "I" must be changed from capital "I" to lower case I. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

3. Claims 1-9, 11, 17-30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because if the broadest reasonable interpretation of the claimed invention as a whole encompasses a human being, then a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 101 must be made indicating that the claimed invention is directed to nonstatutory subject matter.

For example (Claim 1 page 98 line 25- page 99 line 7) discloses "the thumbs and the respective remaining four fingers of both hands sandwich the cell phone so that ten fingers of both hands are always placed at the joy stick and the keys (hereinafter a joy stick and keys are referred to as "letter input means" up to claim 19), left hand thumb is used to operate the keys provided on the left side face of the left housing, left hand's forefinger, middle finger, fourth finger and little finger are used to operate the keys provided on the right side face of the left housing, right hand thumb is used to operate a joy stick and keys provided on the right side face of the right housing, and right hand's forefinger, middle finger, fourth finger and little finger are used to operate the keys provided on the left side face of the right housing" and (Claim 1, page 99 line 12-18) of ten fingers, any one finger or a simultaneous input of right hand thumb and the remaining nine fingers can provide a input of the letter input means, and a single key pushing operation by any one finger of the fingers of both hands also can provide, without switching of the conditions such as a shift key, the input of any one letter of about forty-eight letters. Appropriate correction is required to all claims rejected under USC 101.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 1-10 include the word "about" before describing how many keys are located on the housing on the cell phone. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-32 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph and 35 U.S.C 101, set forth in this Office action.
